HOW TO REACH C.K.B. COLLEGE, TEOK

C.K.B. College, Teok is situated by the side of Assam Trunk Road at Jogduar, Teok. The College is located at equidistance (almost 25 K.M.) from Jorhat and Sivasagar-two major cities of upper Assam. The College can be reached by bus via all weather motorable road, by train or even by air. The nearest railway stations are Mariani, Jorhat and Amguri. The airports at Jorhat and Dibrugarh is just 30 K.M. and 100 K.M away respectively.

THEME OF THE SEMINAR

India has embarked on 75th year of her independence and democratic governance. Government of India is celebrating this occasion as Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav (AKAM) with a year long programme. Efforts have been made to showcase the achievements and prospects during the last seven decades. Besides, sector specific aspirations for developments are highlighted in view of a vision for India in 2047.

To commemorate the occasion and remembering the glorious past of the nation, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), C.K.B College, Teok is pleased to organize a National Seminar on "India After Independence and Vision 2047" in association with the Dibrugarh University Teachers' Association (DUTA) and the Assam College Teachers' Association (ACTA), Jorhat Zone on 3rd and 4th December, 2021. The deliberations in the seminar will ostensibly create awareness on inclusive growth and development, sustainability and social capital formation, gender justice, participatory democracy and others. The seminar is a part of philanthropic endeavour of C.K.B. College, Teok Teachers' Association and is highly expected to provide a platform for research and exchange of ideas among the young generation of students, teachers and research scholars of the nation.
