

Date: 02-02-2021

Activities

Eco Club in Collaboration Extension Activities Cell

Venue: Sankardev High School, Jogduar, Teok

Celebration of World Wetland's Day

- The director of the Club Dr. Gautam Das taking initiative for raising awareness of wetlands among neighbouring communities and celebrated the Day at Sankardev High School, Jogduar, Teok. He outlines the objectives of celebrating the day at Sankardev High School, Jogduar.
- The Joint Director of the club Dr. Gautam Das has taken initiative to celebrate World Wetlands Day, 2021 in the college. Dr. Gautam Das delivered a speech on the importance of the day and outlines the objective the programme to raise awareness about the vital role of wetlands for people and planet. He also stated the theme of the year “ Wetlands and Water”
- Resource person Dr. Binoy Brod Rajkhowa and Mr. Robin Saikia, Convenor, Extension Cell spoke on preservation and proper maintenance of local wetlands among teachers and students of the said high school.
- Head Master of the School concluded the programme thanking the teachers who made necessary arrangement for the celebration of the programme at their school and adding that such programme would be again organized on a large scale as preservation of the wetlands are the need of the hour.

Participants:

- Teachers, a large of students of Sankardev High School, Jogduar, Teok took part in the programme.

Programme Outcome:

- The Eco Club of C.K.B. College observed World Wetland's Day, 2021 at Sankardev High School, Jogduar
- The programme helps students of the said school to know that the wetlands are ecosystem where water is the primary factor controlling the environment and the associate plant and animal life.

(Dr. Gautam Das)

Jt. Director
Eco-Club