RESPONSIBILITY (ISR) SCHEME

BEST-PRACTICE- I

INSTITUTIONAL SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY (ISR) SCHEME

Chandra Kamal Bezbaruah College outlined social responsibility as one its core values with an aim to invigorate its society. The college in association with various cells, clubs of the college and Institutional Social Responsibility Committee in particular executes Community Development Programmes

OBJECTIVES OF THE PRACTICE

1. To provide support to students, community and assist personalities contributing to socio-cultural field.
2. Create socio-economic, environmental awareness among the neighbouring communities and adopting school to develop infrastructural and academic equipments and villages to motivate the youths with skills for self-employment and entrepreneurship through Farmer's Friend Club and Youth Clubs.

THE CONTEXT

The college always focuses on extension of its service from the campus to the surrounding communities. Initiatives are taken in tune with the Sustainable Development Goals 2030, with holistic approach to lift the neighbouring community through empowerment, logistics support and skill enhancement. The Departments, Institutional Social Responsibility Committee, Skill Enhancement and Entrepreneurship Development Cell, Extension Activity Cell, Women Cell, Disaster Management Cell etc. are playing a vital role in fulfilling the objectives of the practice.

THE PRACTICE

i. Appreciation to unsung social leaders

- The college felicitates the retired teachers, eminent women personalities having exemplary contribution to the society and it has also taken initiative to name the buildings in the names of the founders of the institution as a mark of regards and acknowledgement of their contribution.

ii. Social Support:

- The institution has organized workshop, training programmes and campaigns keeping social transformation in view.

iii. Skill Support:

- The college has undertaken measures to support the neighboring community by organizing courses in cutting and tailoring, piggery and fishery farming, Food Processing with the objective to motivate them to find out avenues of livelihood by organizing workshop training etc.

iv. Environmental activities

- Eco Club, NSS Unit and Extension Cell has carried out environmental awareness programmes and construction works to foster bio-diversity in the nurtured villages and adopted schools.

v. Economical Support

- Concessions, Transportation Fee, Group Insurance facilities are provided to the students of the college.

vi. Academic Support

- The college organizes special lecture, workshops, programmes for advancement of academic support to the students and community.

vii. Nurtured Villages and Adopted Schools

The college has five nurtured villages and six adopted villages. A number of activities/programmes under the banner of various cells and clubs have been carried out in these villages.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS:

- The college started courses in electrician, cutting and tailoring from 2017 and helped unemployed youths to find out prospective means for being self-employed. The college has organized several social responsible activities such as International Women's Day, Literary campaign, Health Check-Up Programme, two months Cutting & Tailoring training programme from 06/06/2018 to 11/08/2018 and from 03/12/2019 to 03/01/2020, Free Eye Screening Camp, Special camp “Plantation cum Cleanliness” from 03/02/2021 to 5/02/2021, Extension Activity Week from 1st March to 6th March, 2021 and three-day Incubation and Start-Up conclave from 10th to 12th April, 2022 for boosting self-employment and entrepreneurship.

PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED AND RESOURCES REQUIRED

Problems	Requirement
Mobilization of financial resources to carry out the programmes since no fund is provided by the government for such activities.	Financial help from the part of government.
Students loaded with courses of study within the framework of CBCS system find it difficult to manage time for social activities.	Within the credits under courses of study Social service should be also counted as credits.
